

THE FORMULA 1 SOCAR AZERBAIJAN GRAND PRIX 2019 — IGNITE THE CITY!

We are delighted to welcome you back to Baku for the most anticipated F1 race weekend of the season when the Street Fighters return to do battle on our magnificent street circuit and IGNITE THE CITY!

Not only will you be treated to three days of spectacular on-track action but your ticket to the fastest street race in F1 will also gain you entry to live concerts in Baku's stunning Crystal Hall by global superstars Sam Smith and Cardi B. It truly is the weekend that has it all.

Your Race Weekend Do's and Don'ts

- Your wristband must be worn at all times as it becomes immediately void upon removal. Please do not take it off. You will need the wristband along with your valid ticket in order to re-enter the Fan Zone on the same day.
- For the benefit of all spectators, please do not use tripods and monopods on the grandstands. Umbrellas must also remain closed unless it starts raining heavily.
- Earplugs as well as adult-sized rain coats are available for sale at Baku City Circuit's official merchandise stalls located throughout the Fan Zone.
- It is prohibited to smoke on grandstands including in corporate boxes, general-admission podiums and indoor areas (cafes, bars etc.).
- Medical Clinics are located throughout the Fan Zone and their locations are indicated on the map. If you are unwell please proceed to the nearest Medical Point or ask staff to call for a doctor for you.

Information Points

The info points are located close to spectator gates and concert hall entrances.

Lost & Found: To report any lost and found item or child, please go immediately to the nearest info point, security representative or any present BCC staff.

Disability/Wheelchair Access and Facilities: There are wheelchair accessible seats at the Absheron A and Azneft Grandstands, as well as wheelchair accessible platform at the AO4 tribune at the Concert Hall. In addition, wheelchairs are available for hire near all Info Points. You will be required to leave your ID when loaning a wheelchair.

Food & Beverage

There are food & beverage courts throughout the Fan Zone and Concert Arena. Here you can buy both traditional cuisine and fast food (i.e. kebabs, pizzas, hotdogs, shawarma, soft drinks, ice-cream etc.). There are also restaurants offering you a rich variety of national cuisine, as well as bars serving alcohol. Please see the map for exact locations of F & B kiosks, restaurants and bars. Payment is possible by cash and with most credit cards.

Getting cash

The National currency is the Azerbaijani Manat (AZN). 1 USD equals approximately 1.70 AZN depending on the currency exchange rate. The nearest ATM/cash machines are in the Park Bulvar Shopping centre (ground floor, and –1 parking level). The nearest currency exchange point is also at Park Bulvar (ground floor), ASB Bank and the Gunay Bank in Nizami Street.

Safety Rules and Emergencies

Stay calm and do not panic in case of an emergency signal or announcement. Listen to the information being provided about the situation and observe and respect any operational procedures on a continuous basis. Please also be sure to study the entrance and exit gates on the circuit map beforehand.

We encourage you to get familiarized with the Emergency Assembly Points within the Fan Zone which will be used during emergency situations. Please note that emergency access points are usually different from the standard Entry Gates. Always follow the instructions given by staff and security in uniform.

Avoid crowds where overly intoxicated people gather. If someone has had too much drink or is behaving aggressively, please do not hesitate to notify a Security or Police Officer.

BCC & the Crystal Hall – How to Get Around

How to Get to BCC:

Getting around Baku City Circuit is relatively straightforward. However, spectators are advised to be aware of some important factors while moving around the circuit:

Parking

Please note that there are no dedicated parking areas at the track. However, spectators may use the parking areas available around the track such as the White Boulevard area, 28 Mall Parking Zone, "Garage" parking near the Molocan Garden and the Nizami Garden as well as in the Winter Boulevard parking zone.

Autograph Sessions

Enjoy the FORMULA 1 SOCAR AZERBAIJAN GRAND PRIX 2019 weekend together with the Street Fighters by meeting your favorite F1 idols at the Autograph signing sessions that will be staged on the F1 Fanzone Stage on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Q&A Session

We want to provide a powerful and engaging learning experience for Baku City Circuit's guests by hosting public Q&A sessions with key F1 personnel. These sessions are often the only time dedicated to audience interaction with the stars of F1 and take place on the F1 stage. Dates and times will be confirmed closer to the time.

Pit Lane Walk

Any visitors holding a valid 4-day ticket are welcome to join the Pit Lane Walk on Thursday, April 25th. The Pit Lane Walk leads from the start-finish line to the F1 Fan Zone stage through the pit lane. This is a unique opportunity to watch the teams make their final preparations to get their cars ready in the garages just a day prior to the Grand Prix weekend.

Drivers' Grid and Parade

The Drivers' Parade sees the F1 drivers taken an open-top lap of Baku City Circuit to greet all the attending F1 fans in the circuit that have come to cheer for them. The Driver's Parade will take place on Sunday, 28th of April before the race starts

National Anthem

The National Anthem Ceremony is one of the most notable moments of the FORMULA 1 AZERBAIJAN GRAND PRIX. With the participation of Azerbaijan government officials, FOM dignitaries and F1 teams, this ceremony pays tribute to the host country of Azerbaijan, as well as to all countries involved in this grand event. The National Anthem ceremony will take place on April 28th, just before the beginning of the race.

Podium Ceremony (Track Invasion)

The Podium Ceremony is the culmination of the three-day motorsport extravaganza that will take place right after the end of the race on Sunday 28th of April. The track gates near the Absheron A grandstand will open for spectators to move closer to the podium before the commencement of the ceremony.
